Quran. 61:6—The Praised One—Yahya Yuhanan aka John the Baptist

ATTN: Ahmad used as a proper name for Muhammad never existed, and it was always used as an adjective.

The use of it as a proper name came long after Muhammad had left the earth.

And when Jesus, son of Mary, said: “O children of Israel, I am God’s messenger to you, authenticating what is present with me of the Torah and bringing good news of a messenger to come after me whose name will be praised (ismuhu-Ahmad).” But when he showed them the clear proofs, they said: “This is clearly magic.”

The only time we find the arabic ismuhu read the same way with the proper recitation (tajweed) is in Q. 19:7 which reads: “O Zakariya! We give thee good news of a son: His name shall be Yahya (ismuhu-Yahya): on none by that name-sake (samiyyan) have We conferred distinction before.”

The prophecy in Q. 61:6 (ismuhu—ahmad/whose name will be praised) brought us to Quran 19: 7 (ismuhu—Yahya/on none by that name-sake have we conferred distinction before), and in 19:7 we find the key word samiyyan. The only other place this arabic word is found in the whole of the Quran in that form is in 19:65 which reads:“The Lord of the heavens and the earth, and what is between them! So worship Him and maintain thou patience in His worship. Hast thou known any name-sake (samiyyan) for Him?

Comparing the two (19:7/19:65) it becomes apparent name-sake (samiyyan) for both God and John the Baptist/Yahya: incomparable, unmatched, unique; One of a Kind It is here his name is honored, raised, and praised at the highest level.

Samiyyan from the root smw: to be high/lofty, raised, name, attribute. Samawat: heights/heavens/rain, raining clouds. Ismun: mark of identification by which one is recognised. It is a derivation of wsm (pl. asma). —Concordance of the Sublime Quran

In the famous Arabic lexicon Lisan al-Arab, the root s m w means “elevation or highness.” No other prophetic name has been honored, raised, and praised to such a degree in the whole of the Quran, save Yahya—Yuhanan (John the Baptist)
